This is Your Character Guide
Start with Basics to see how everything works, then use the tabs to jump around your character's info.

Your Binder and You

Your binder covers what your character knows from the first week of school, ending on Thursday. It includes your character's personal history along with information about their friendships, conflicts, and more.

Shared vs Secret Information

Not everyone has the same information, and even shared events may look different depending on who is describing them. Your binder reflects your character's point of view, not the full story. Unless your binder specifically says another character knows something, your secrets are your own.

When the School Week Ends

On Friday night, you will receive your first clue, which will update you on what happened after the binder ends and give you new party conversation topics, drama, or questions to bring with you on Saturday.

Upcoming Murder

The murder will happen during the party, and the killer already knows who they are. If you are the victim, you will find out when it is time for you to die.

Optional Characters

Upon arrival at the party, any guests who have not been assigned a character will be given a menu of Optional Characters to choose from. As a result, these characters may or may not attend. If they do, they may be people your character already knows. Any optional character in your binder is marked with an asterisk (*). You will also receive a quick-reference sheet introducing any optional characters who are attending.

DJ Specific Notes

But I'm a Cheerleader — On Wednesday, Dustin Kramer used his radio show to make fun of school spirit, pep rallies, and the SGA thinking anyone cares. You didn't hear it, but you heard about it. Performers make fun of politicians; that's life. Except the new newspaper editor, Greg Salinger, has apparently been planning some big SGA article for years, so now you're nervous your role may be part of the target.

Be aggressive. B-E aggressive — Now that you're Activities Coordinator and have a radio show, pep rallies look different. Between SGA, cheer practice, and watching Danielle Vaughn (the new Publicity Chair) and Melanie plan for the pep rally, you didn't realize how much influence SGA has. Melanie is setting up equipment, but Danielle picked the WRHK bells and whistles, and Danielle and Travis Taylor (SGA President) are hosting. You're starting to wonder if you should have a bigger role now or next time. What's normal? You can't remember.

Your Social Map

Close Friends

- Morgan Chase: Your girlfriend. One reason the two of you work is that you keep sharing your hobbies with each other. You even have a social map for her.
- Victoria Walsh: She's friendly, polished, preppy, and sporty all at the same time.
- Veronica Walsh: She's artsy with a dry, observant side, but still easy to talk to.
- Skyler Winslow: A WRHK friend who is confident, funny, a little intimidating, and somehow always knows more than she says.
- Lindsay Silver: Creative, dramatic, and sharp-eyed. She has strong opinions, great taste, and always knows how something should look.

Student Government

You were elected Activities Coordinator at the end of last year, after being interested in SGA for a while. You're excited to finally be part of it, but you're still learning how everything works and where your role fits.

You thought you'd be doing more to help shape events, but so far, you haven't actually done much. You think Danielle might be stepping into places that should be yours, but you're not sure. There are weird vibes around her lately, but maybe that's just beginning-of-year, pre-pep-rally stress.

Yearbook Gossip

Lindsay is the yearbook editor and told you Greg Salinger, the newspaper editor, has been asking her for photos because The Current is short. She agreed to share some, but she thinks he needs to get his own staff. You told her about Greg's SGA/school spirit article, and she said that if he asks for any photos of you, she'll say no.

You may know more people than you remember. If someone says you've met through WRHK, class, or friends, go with it.

Morgan's Social Map

You're slowly getting to know Morgan's whole world: her music, her skating, her computer class drama, and all the people who matter to her.

She's an Excellent Musician

Morgan's band, Parking Lot Kids, is playing a big show on Friday. Their schedules are so different that they rarely get to perform, and barely anyone knows they're all in a band together. The band has been nervous about the lack of publicity. They haven't heard any DJs promoting the show, but maybe they just missed it.

She Knows Music

Morgan's radio show, Loose Wires, is great: classic favorites, alternative rock, and slow jams.

She Loves to Skate

Morgan loves to skateboard, and if she's not with you, there's a good chance she's out with her skateboarding friends.

The "Skate Crew"

*Spencer Evans Marcus McKay
Dustin Kramer
Natasha Rosenberg

She's Great at Computers

Over break, Morgan took a computer class where the class was split into teams and challenged to design a CVHS website, and things got heated.

First, Andy hid one of the other team's disks for 2 days. He gave it back, or "found it," so Morgan says that was no big deal. But then Kevin corrupted some of Morgan's team's files, which crossed the line. Morgan's sure he did it, and her team should have won.

It's created some tension with their rivals. Including your friend Monica.

The Walsh Sisters' Back to School Bash

It's Going to Be Killer!

You are good friends with both Walsh twins, and their parents are going out of town this weekend, so they're having a huge party. You know Victoria from SGA and Veronica from WRHK, and since Victoria is dating Travis, the SGA President, this is basically the perfect mix of your school-spirit world and your radio world. You and Morgan are going together, and this party will be epic.

Potential Drama

Things are awkward between Monica and Morgan after the computer class mess. Would it kill them to make up? Maybe they can call a truce on Saturday night.

Things to Know

Party Starts: 6pm

Address: 616 Truxton Dr
Nashville, TN

BYOB: Raid your parents' liquor cabinet, bust out a fake ID, or find and bribe some 21+ person.

Can't Hardly Wait

This week has been all SGA, cheer practice, radio, and stress about Friday's Welcome Rally. You want it to go well, but you're tired of thinking about what could go wrong. On Saturday, you just want to look cute, have fun, drink something you probably should not, and blow off steam with Morgan.

A good party is exactly what you need after this week.
