Your Binder and You

Your binder covers what your character knows from the first week of school, ending on Thursday. It includes your character's personal history along with information about their friendships, conflicts, and more.

Shared vs Secret Information

Not everyone has the same information, and even shared events may look different depending on who is describing them. Your binder reflects your character's point of view, not the full story. Unless your binder specifically says another character knows something, your secrets are your own.

When the School Week Ends

On Friday night, you will receive your first clue, which will update you on what happened after the binder ends and give you new party conversation topics, drama, or questions to bring with you on Saturday.

Upcoming Murder

The murder will happen during the party, and the killer already knows who they are. If you are the victim, you will find out when it is time for you to die.

Optional Characters

Upon arrival at the party, any guests who have not been assigned a character will be given a menu of Optional Characters to choose from. As a result, these characters may or may not attend. If they do, they may be people your character already knows. Any optional character in your binder is marked with an asterisk (*). You will also receive a quick-reference sheet introducing any optional characters who are attending.

THE CURRENT

You are on The Current because the school said you needed another elective. You hate writing, but your friend Greg is the editor and promised you can do research for the writers instead of writing.

Select Staff Notes

- Greg Salinger: Greg is smart, sarcastic, and usually pretty sure he is right.
- Heather Hunter: Heather is the only photographer The Current has right now and is being stretched very thin.
- Victoria Walsh:
- Terry Tribbiani:

(There are more staff members - these are just some of the people you may see on Saturday)

Your Upcoming Assignment

Greg is working on an article about school spirit, SGA, and how much student government actually does. He asked you to research background information on SGA roles, school events, rally planning, publicity, and anything else that helps explain how the school decides what matters.

That means checking what SGA officers are supposed to do, what events they control, who gets credit, and whether Friday's Welcome Rally is a normal first-week event or something people are making bigger than usual.

The Photo Problem

The year has barely started, and there is already drama between The Current and Wingspan, the yearbook. Lindsay Silver, the new yearbook editor, has been acting like yearbook should control school photography.

At the end of last year, Lindsay convinced two newspaper photographers, Brooke Matthews and Natasha Rosenberg, to switch to yearbook by promising better equipment, event access, and official photo opportunities. Maybe that sounds logical to her, but it left Greg with one photographer and not enough coverage.

Greg asked if The Current could use yearbook photos until he recruits more photographers. Lindsay agreed to share some, but said newspaper and yearbook should not get too intertwined. Newspaper needs photos now. Yearbook apparently needs a whole philosophy.

Student Government

Travis Taylor — President
Victoria Walsh — Vice President
Secretary — *Jeremy Benes
Treasurer — *Angela Howser
Courtney Hart — Activities Coordinator
Danielle Vaughn — Publicity Chair

Upcoming SGA Event

Friday, 6/26, Riverhawk Welcome Rally
SGA's back-to-school kickoff with a WRHK broadcast, cheerleaders, etc.

Your Social Map

Close Friends

- Cody Sanders: You've been close since childhood. He is practical, blunt, and usually more interested in fixing a problem than talking it to death.
- Victoria Walsh: You bonded freshman year when you had English and Biology together. She helped you in English, and you helped her in Biology.
- Zachary Bing: You like Zachary's dry humor and the fact that he can have an entire conversation without making it feel like forced small talk.

The Computer Lab Crowd

During break you took a computer class where you were split into teams and challenged to design a CVHS website, and things got heated.

First Andy Green on the other team hid one of your team's disks for a couple of days, then "found" it once you were behind.

Then, maybe, Kevin Kapowski on your team did something to corrupt some of their files. You don't know for sure, you just know you won.

It's created tension with your rivals, but you've gotten over it - but some of your teammates and rivals feel differently.

Your Team

*Kevin Kapowski
Monica Banks
Skyler Winslow

Your Rivals

*Andy Green
Cody Sanders
*George Lawrence
Morgan Chase

Newspaper People

You are still figuring out the newspaper crowd, but a few people are already familiar.

Around the Newsroom

Greg Salinger *Heather Hunter
*Brooke Matthews *Andy Green

WRHK Friends

You are good friends with Melanie Morgendorfer, the WRHK Station Manager, and also know a handful of people who work at the station.

Friends on the Staff

Dustin Kramer Morgan Chase
Jess Summers Brad Tanner Veronica Walsh

You may know more people than you remember. If someone says you've met through WRHK, class, or friends, go with it.

Gossip Around School

You are not exactly a gossip person, but you hear things. People forget quiet does not mean unaware.

Friday's Welcome Rally

Friday's Welcome Rally is supposed to kick off the year with WRHK, cheerleaders, giveaways, and school-spirit stuff. With Travis Taylor leading SGA, Victoria involved as Vice President, Courtney Hart handling activities, and Danielle Vaughn pushing publicity, it feels bigger than a normal first-week rally.

The whole school keeps talking about it. By Friday afternoon, everyone will finally know whether it was worth the hype.

Student Government Under the Microscope

Dustin Kramer, host of WRHK's Brass Tacks, used his show this week to mock school spirit, pep rallies, and SGA acting like everyone should care. He did not name anyone directly, but people working on the rally heard enough.

Greg also has an SGA article coming, so now people are paying closer attention. If Friday's rally is messy, overblown, or more about SGA looking important than students having fun, Dustin and Greg will both have material.

Something's Up at WRHK

WRHK has not been doing publicity the way people expected this week. A few students are waiting for announcements, promos, or requests to make it on air, and nobody seems totally sure what is happening.

Melanie is your friend, but if things keep getting missed, people may start asking questions.

Computer Class Fallout

The summer website competition may be over, but not everyone has moved on. Some people still argue about whether Kevin Kapowski deliberately corrupted files or whether Andy Green hiding a floppy disk was the bigger offense.

The tension has spilled into the school year, and things are especially awkward between Courtney Hart, now SGA Activities Coordinator, and Monica Banks, WRHK Assistant Station Manager. They used to be close friends, but Courtney is dating Morgan Chase, Monica's biggest rival from the competition.

The Walsh Sisters' Back to School Bash

It's Going to Be Killer!

You are good friends with Victoria Walsh, the SGA Vice President, and her twin sister Veronica has a WRHK show, so you know both sides of this party. Their parents are going out of town this weekend, so they're having a huge back-to-school bash. Since Victoria is dating Travis Taylor, the SGA President, half the student government crowd will probably be there too. Add in WRHK people, newspaper people, and everyone who just wants to be where things are happening, and this is exactly the kind of party people will be talking about on Monday.

Potential Drama

Friday's Welcome Rally is already all over school gossip. Depending how it goes, Travis, Courtney, Danielle, Melanie, Dustin, and half the party may have opinions by Saturday night.

Things to Know

Party Starts: 6pm
Address: 616 Truxton Dr
Nashville, TN 37214
BYOB: Raid your parents' liquor cabinet, bust out a fake ID, or find and bribe some 21+ person.

Can't Hardly Wait

The first week of school is finally over, and you are already fried. Five days back somehow felt longer than all of break, and everyone has already found something to be dramatic about.

By Saturday, you are done hearing about schedules, electives, and school spirit. You are going to show up, hang out, smoke something you probably should not, get high, and let Monday be future Ryan's problem.
